Job description

We are excited to be establishing a new home in Whanganui supporting three flatmates to live happy meaningful lives.

We are looking for people who are empathetic, passionate support workers.

You will be part of a small team who are passionate about providing care, warmth and kindness to those who live and work in the home. The team will be providing a safe home environment where three flatmates can learn new skills, independence and build friendships with peers. You will be 'their person' to support them to interact with others in their community doing the activities they enjoy.

We have part time weekend days and casual positions available

What we can offer you:

An excellent working environment and a great team atmosphere

You will earn between $23.38 - $29.10 per hour, depending on your qualification

Free yearly Flu Vaccinations

Rewarding work where you can make a positive difference to the people you support and the wider community

Extensive on-boarding and ongoing training and professional development opportunities

Career growth and advancement

Study days and MASH Day

Applicants will be reviewed as they are received so these roles may close earlier if the right applicants are found.
